NEELY IN CONCERT FEBRUARY 17, 2015

The husband and wife duo, Neely will be in concert on Tuesday night February 17th at 6:30 p.m.

Nashville-based husband & wife duo NEELY integrates the region's eclectic musical soundscape into an array of well-crafted Rock anthems featuring spine-chilling harmonies and hook-laden lyrics. The roots of what is now NEELY began decades ago in the small towns of Cosby, MO and Bennington, KS where both Jeremy and Kaci would record hours of radio broadcasts on cassette tape and pour over the content, honing writing and vocal skills that seeming providence would set on a collision course. The two were married May 5th, 1996, yet it wasn't until the summer of 2000 that they began to explore the extraordinary musical harmony that was fused together. Constantly pursuing excellence in their craft and traveling under other banners, Jeremy and Kaci began to exhibit a quality in their music that began to turn heads in the Central United States. Neely is touring throughout the Midwest. A $10 donation per person will be received at the door to defray the cost of their tour. They will also have CDs for purchase on the day of the event.

STAFF BIOGRAPHIES: MEET VERONICA CABALLERO

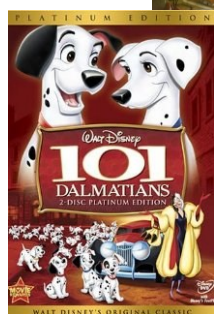

Hi I'm Veronica Caballero! I am one of the new part time youth librarian at the library. While I have only been here for a short time, I enjoy the atmosphere of the library. My job is working with young children, planning and executing programs. You can join me for evening youth programs.

When I am not working, I enjoy reading, with an interest of many genres, as well as nonfiction. I also enjoy movies. Feel free to ask me for recommendations of books and movies.

The library is a great place and a great place to be. I have a lot to learn, but I enjoy the challenge. Stop by and say hi, on your next visit to the library.

STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS:

The First Phone Call in Heaven by Mitch Albom is the story of a Michigan town in which a woman gets a phone call from her sister in heaven and the ripple effect of this conversation on the town and the world.

Zero Day by David Baldacci tells the story of John Puller who is sent to investigate a brutal murder of a military family. Puller discovers that the case is more complex and more dangerous than he could have imagined.

Forgotten by David Baldacci takes up where Zero Day had begun. John Puller, on a much needed vacation goes to Florida to investigate some concerns that his aunt had about some suspicious activities going on in her community.

Gone Girl by Gillian Flynn is a thrill ride of emotion as a woman goes missing. Foul play is expected. The husband is the prime suspect. This is an excellent read.

Haunted America by Michael Norman and Beth Scott

This book tells of haunted location from all 50 states and Canada. There are stories about evil ghost/spirits, poltergeists, children ghost, and playful ghost. The stories are told in battlefields, playhouses, regular houses, phantom trains, and even the White House.

These are very gripping and interesting stories. I don't believe in ghost but I do enjoy watching the paranormal shows on TV. These stories tell a lot of history around the United States and Canada. Some of these stories leave you amazed at how violent some people are or how careless.

The Week is a weekly news magazine for connected people who want their news a good news digest. The magazine gives the reader a number interesting articles in a one to two page format at most. They also provide links to online resources to further reading and consideration.

The First Phone Call from Heaven by Mitch Albom
