DAN WEBER CONCERT JUNE 1ST

Dan Weber will be in concert on Monday June 1st at 6:30 p.m.

Award Winning songwriter Dan Weber has been described as "The classic mid-life overnight sensation." A gifted storyteller and inspiring performer, in 2014 he Won 2nd place in the prestigious Woody Guthrie songwriting contest and was honored to become a rare 2-time finalist in the legendary Kerrville Folk Festival 'New Folk' competition. In 2014 he also received several other national songwriting contest honors.

Weber began performing at 40 and in a few short years was winning over audiences with energetic performances and hilarious stories from the roads he's traveled. None other than legendary Folk troubadour Ramblin' Jack Elliott said "I love Dan's songs and he tells really good stories."

His songs have been described as 'Timeless' and 'Authentic' and his debut CD 'Ash and Bone' received accolades from American Songwriter Magazine and the UK's Maverick Magazine said: "4 Stars: Has you hanging on to every word. That's the touch of a true Master Craftsman songwriter."

There's also been recognition from DJ's: "'Hank and Jesus' is easily the best folk song I heard last year" and The Victory Review magazine wrote "Weber's writing is as strong as any in the Contemporary Folk community. 'Goodbye to Dad' is one of the best original tunes that I have heard in a long time."

SOUTH SIOUX CITY PUBLIC LIBRARY

STAFF BIOGRAPHIES: MEET ANGELA MELIA

I am no doubt the loudest librarian on staff here. My name is Odessa and I am the Youth Librarian. I have a love of working with children and encouraging them to read and release their creative and imaginative side.

Right after graduating from South Sioux City High School, I thought technology was my chosen career and went to college for computer programming. I discovered have a passion for technology, but I didn't want it to be my job. So, I needed to find a different path for my life.

I moved to Omaha and was a stay at home mother and volunteered with my sons' school.

I really enjoyed that time I had to be with him while he was young. As he aged, I found that he didn't "need" me as much, so I returned to the work force. I went to work for a public school district in Omaha and fell in love with working with children. I knew that I had found a passion that I needed to follow. I stayed with that job for the next four years, while I lived in Omaha.

I missed being in my "home-town" of South Sioux City and decided to move home. My family is all close to this city and I missed them while living in Omaha. I decided to take a move out of the public schools and applied for my current position. I have loved every minute of my career choice and have even started attending college again, but working on my library science degree.

In-between my teens' activities, my job, and my schooling I love to dig into my ancestry and follow the trails of history. I enjoy reading, but, I do not have a select genre that I stick to. In the warmer months you may find me in my flower garden loving my flowers to death. My grandmother says I have a "brown thumb" because my plants usually die. Scrapbooking, digital photography, baking, crafting and sewing are all other time fillers for me.

I never expected to be a librarian by trade, but I have found my place in this world for this current time in my life. I enjoy my job and have a passion I hope to pass onto all the youth I work with in this community.

TYLER BARHAM CONCERT JUNE 4TH, 2015

Tyler Barham will perform a concert on Thursday June 4th at 6:30 p.m.

If in today's music environment, online followings are the foundation of an artist's career, then Montana native Tyler Barham is looking solid as a rock. This Country singer/songwriter, with a voice that has been described as ringing like a bell, has built a foundation of more than 50,000 dedicated online fans with nearly 9 million views. Born in Bozeman and raised in Florence, Montana, Tyler began singing when he was nine. Although he enjoyed singing different styles of music, it did not take him long to realize his heart (and eventually his baritone voice) belonged to country music. In his early teens, Tyler competed and won various regional talent competitions, but also while in high school, Tyler discovered YouTube and began posting covers of his favorite country songs, which quickly introduced him to a worldwide audience.

In 2008 Tyler made the leap from computer screen to TV screen as a finalist on Great American Country's nationwide talent search, Next GAC Star, and in the next few years was featured on E!'s Opening Act based on his YouTube following and was the winner of nationally syndicated radio host Radio Lia's Your Big Break contest.

In September of 2010, with the veterans John Griffin and Dave Flint, Tyler released an independent self-titled EP that reached No. 39 on the iTunes Country Album Chart. His follow-up EP, titled Twenty-One, which was released on March 21st 2011, his 21st birthday, cruised its way up the iTunes Country Album Chart to #19. Building on the sales success of his previous releases, Tyler's most recent original release, Don't Cage This Heart, debuted at #56 on the Billboard -Country Album Chart and #19 on the Billboard Heatseekers Album Chart which charts album titles from new or developing acts in all formats.

Tyler has also enjoyed success at GrassRoots radio with singles "17 & Young," "Meet Me In Montana," and the original holiday song "Coal In Your Stocking This Year" and has just shipped his new single, "More Than A Cotton Dress" to radio nationally which is being lauded by programmers as the catchy and compelling answer to the proliferation of "Bro Country."

Tyler's fans are not simply online. He was named one of the Country Music Association's (CMA) "Who New to Watch in 2013" and was recently named one of Billboard's "10 Country Artists to Watch in 2014."

STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS

The Orchardist by Amanda Coplin is set in the Pacific Northwest, at the turn of the 20th Century. Talmadge is a recluse who nurtures his apples and apricots with the care one would take with raising children. One day, Talmadge encounters two sisters who were both pregnant and feral. The girls follow Talmadge home, where he feeds them and finally wins a degree of trust from them. This begins an epic story of the lives of the girls and their impact on Talmadge's life. This book is full of hope and sorrow. To be honest I had to restart the book three times before I actually finished it, but it proved to be a worthwhile read. (FIC COP)

Bless Your Heart: The North Platte Canteen by Charlotte Endorf takes a touching look at the phenomenon of the North

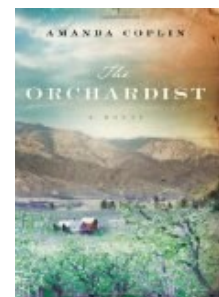

Platte Canteen. Charlotte is skilled in bringing out the stories and memories from those who were part of this piece of Americana during the years 1941-1946. This is a great read for all ages. Share it with your children and grand children. (940.54 END)

Wallflower by Diana Krall is a beautiful album of jazz covers of forty years of pop songs. She begins with California Dreamin' (from the Mama's and the Papa's), Desperado (the Eagles), Superstar (the Carpenters). She is joined by Michael Buble and other prominent entertainers on other cuts of the album. This is a great CD to enjoy on the patio on a warm spring afternoon. (MCD JAZZ KRA) known ghost hunters, as they tried to help a family who is tormented by a dark spirit. This is a work of fiction based on true events. The movie is a great Friday night fright watch. It is good for a scare, but it also documents some of the work of Ed and Loraine Warren, who are well known to those who read paranormal nonfiction.

Let us know what you like to read, the movies you like to watch, and the music to which you like to listen. Pick up a copy of Book Page and let us know what you would like to have us purchase for the collection. South Sioux City Public Library is your public library.
