SUMMER CONCERTS BEGIN ON JUNE 12TH @ THE LIBRARY

Rupert Wates June 12th @ 6:30 p.m. Rupert Wates was born in London and studied at Oxford University. He has been a full time songwriter since the late 1990s, when he signed a publishing contract with Eaton Music Limited. His contract required him to write material in all kinds of styles and genres, for all kinds of artists. He worked extensively with Jazz vocalist Liz Fletcher, and wrote the album 'Blue Afternoons' (Mainstem, 2002) specially for her voice. Moving in 2001 to Paris, Wates formed his own quartet and began playing live regularly. In fall 2006 he came to the US. He is now based in New York City and Colorado.

Danny Santos June 14th @ 6:30 p.m. Singer/songwriter Danny Santos melds the inspiration of his Chicano heritage, a musical legacy ranging from Hank Williams to the Beatles, and a Texas-sized determination to create a unique mix of country/folk tinged with bluegrass and the blues. His songs illuminate the joys of true love, the woes of love lost, and the weary longing of those still searching for love. It's a style forged from maturity, grit and drive. Danny Possesses a strong expressive voice and a compelling on stage presence, whether appearing solo or fronting his all-acoustic band, Los Bluegrass Vatos. Born in South Texas, Danny began playing the guitar at age thirteen. Singing and songwriting seemed to naturally follow soon after. Heavily influenced by the likes of Townes Van Zandt, Guy Clark & that whole Texas singer/songwriter genre, he continues to create his own brand of quality Texas music.

All concerts request a $10 per person suggested donation at the door. This money goes to the artist performing.

Artists will have ptems for purchase on the night of the event.

STAFF BIOGRAPHIES: MEET BRENDA LUZZIER

Hi, I'm Brenda. I graduated college with a degree in Art Education and a minor in Music. I worked at the campus library part-time during college and so when I graduated I thought working here would be a great job and it has been! I started working here at the South Sioux City Library in 2011. I like being a librarian because I get to be around all the books, see the new ones come in, and help people find the right ones for them. I enjoy reading a variety of books from across many genres. Some of my favorites are mystery, suspense, fantasy, and true crime. My favorite books so far this year have been Hex by Thomas Olde Heuvelt, Disappearance at Devil's Rock by Paul Tremblay, and The Magicians by Lev Grossman. When I'm not at the library I like to spend my time writing, cooking, listening to music, drawing, and making art projects.

Books You May Enjoy

STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS

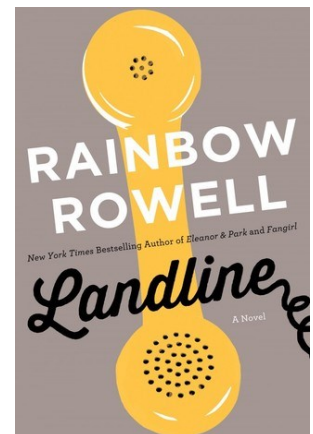

Landline by Rainbow Rowell (FIC ROW)- Georgie McCool knows that her marriage to Neal is in trouble. Days before Christmas Georgie decides to stay in California in order to work on a new situation comedy. Neal decides to take the children with him to Omaha, Nebraska, leaving Georgie alone. During the days before Christmas Georgie begins to worry about her marriage. Did Neal leave her for good, when he took the children to Nebraska? While they love each other, is that enough to keep this marriage together. This story has an element of magical realism. Rowell writes in a pithy style that keeps the story moving. It is highly recommended.

Clapton: the Autobiography by Eric Clapton Eric Clapton is a legendary guitarist, though he would not claim that for himself. This book covers the blues influence that Clapton had. This book is like a mini encyclopedia of the blues and folk revival of the early 1960s. He gives an inside view of the early years of the Rolling Stones, the Beatles and the whole pop British invasion of the United States. Clapton proves to be one of the busiest guitarists, as he moved from one band to another, playing rock 'n' roll, but preserving his blues roots. As he tells his story he seems to know everyone and you get some good insights into the lives of many rock music artists. He deals honestly in this book with his bouts with alcoholism and addiction, his attempts at recovery, and then his recovery for more than 20 years now. The book also deals with his work in developing and funding the Crossroads Recovery Center in Antigua. This book is wonderful read for rock music and blues music fans. It is highly recommended.

Is Everyone Ready for Fun by Jan Thomas; Every parent or caregiver knows that having fun is a big part of every child's life is having fun. In this book Jan Thomas captures some of the ways children like to have fun: jumping, dancing, and wiggling. This brightly colored book with illustrations that draw you into the story captures the energy of childhood. Your child will want to read this book again and again. The repetitive words in the book will help your child to read on their own as well. You and your child will love this book.
