The Novelists & Daniel Champaigne ,August Concerts

The Novelists will perform at the library on Monday, August 14th at 6:30 p.m. The Novelists showcase cliffhanger storytelling, multiple lead singers, and their signature four-part harmonies.

The Novelists have become a mainstay on the West Coast festival, college and house concert circuits and are planning several national tours throughout 2017. They've shared the stage with Big Bad Voodoo Daddy, John Prine, and Daryl Stuermer (Genesis).

Daniel Champaigne August

28th @ 6:30 p.m. One reviewer recently wrote – 'Daniel Champaigne exudes a natural ease on stage, as he sings poignant lyrics and beautifully crafted melodies that invariably whisk the heart up with grand romanticism. Coupled with an exhilarating guitar talent that transcends mere acoustic playing to replicate a whole band, Champaigne is just magical' (themusic.com.au)

Tangled Yarns: The Tangled Yarns group meets each Tuesday evening at 6:30 p.m. This group is for everyone from the beginner level to experienced needle worker. Bring your needle work and join us in the fun.

Moon Watch: The moon will be full on Monday August 7th. This is why we will host a moon watch on Monday, August 7th at 9:00 p.m.

During a Full Moon the moon is 100% illuminated as seen from Earth and is on the opposite side of the Earth from the Sun. The Moon will be visible throughout the night sky rising at sunset in the east and setting with the sunrise the next morning.

STAFF BIOGRAPHIES: MEET TAMMI HUSK

My name is Tammi. I have worked for the South Sioux City Public Library since 1999. I love how many people I have gotten to know since I started here. I graduated from SSC High School, and am still a big Cardinals sports fan. I am married and my children live in Lincoln.

I have always loved to read books of all kinds, but right now my favorite books are romances. Some of my favorite authors are Danielle Steel, Linda Lael Miller, Jodi Thomas, and Fern Michaels.

When I am not reading, I like to play on the computer, do crocheting and other crafting projects.

MILITARY FAMILY COMPUTER

Families of military personnel can contact their loved ones through the South Sioux City Public Library

The computer is equipped with a camera and voice over internet capabilities to allow military families to communicate with their loved ones who are serving in Iraq, Afghanistan, or other fields of service throughout the world. This computer is dedicated to this single purpose, as a service of the South Sioux City Public Library, the city of South Sioux City and generous donors who want to help support our troops and their families back home.

Library Director said this of the donation:

"Part of the mission of the South Sioux City Public Library is to provide services for the community utilizing a variety of technologies. As a former veteran, I know from experience both the cost and the importance of communicating with family at home. We are happy to be able to provide this service to the families of those who are serving in other parts of the world."

COVER TO COVER BOOK CLUB

Cover to Cover will discuss the book Death Zones and Darling Spies by Beverly Deepe Kever; on Monday August 14th at 3:00 p.m. The book covers the author's seven year experience of covering the Vietnam War.

Landline by Rainbow Rowell; is the book to be discussed on August 28th at 3:00 p.m. in this book Georgie McCool knows her marriage is in trouble. That it's been in trouble for a long time. She still loves her husband, Neal, and Neal still loves her, deeply -- but that almost seems besides the point now .Maybe that was always besides the point. Two days before they're supposed to visit Neal's family in Omaha for Christmas, Georgie tells Neal that she can't go. She's a TV writer, and something's come up on her show; she has to stay in Los Angeles. The conflict grows in this magical holiday tale.

Books by Nebraska Authors: both books are by Nebraska authors. Here are some others.

STAFF RECOMMENDATIONS

Twitter Power 3.0 by Joel Comm and Dave Taylor; I have been on Twitter since 2008, but I still read to keep up on Twitter as well as social media.

When I came to this book, I was in a position that I was wanting to back away from Twitter. I didn't think that I was being effective so I was ready to back away, but this book breathed new life into my enjoyment of Twitter in my personal level and in my library account.

The book starts with a brief inspirational introduction from Guy Kawasaki. The bulk of the book deals with the basic mechanics of creating an account, creating a brand, crafting tweets, building a following and driving traffic to your brand, and even making money on Twitter. The finish with a discussion of third party apps that will help you to manage your Twitter account followed by a list of thought leaders to follow.

You can read this book page one to the end, or dip in and out where you need more direction. If you haven't started Twitter, but have thought about it, get started. If you are like I was when you pick up this book use it to pick up one new idea and move forward.

This book is recommended for anyone who is interested in social media, or anyone who is working in social media marketing.

Gilead by Marilynne Robinson; Gilead is a wonderful rambling letter, of a father, John Ames to his child. Ames is a pastor who is near his death and would like to tell his child of his life and his fore-bearers. John Ames is in a long line of preachers, his father is a minister in Iowa, his grandfather was a preacher in Maine who receives a vision of Christ chained in Kansas, so he heeds the call and goes to fight on the side of the Abolitionists to keep Kansas a free state. He talks about his friendship with John Ames Boughton and John's wayward son. The book is as fresh as the morning. It is highly recommended for all readers.
