COVER TO COVER DISCUSSES "EVICTED"

Cover to Cover book club will discuss the book Evicted: Poverty and Profit in the American City by Matthew Desmond on Monday, April 23rd at 3:00 p.m.

"In this brilliant, heartbreaking book, Matthew Desmond takes us into the poorest neighborhoods of Milwaukee to tell the story of eight families on the edge. Arleen is a single mother trying to raise her two sons on the 20 dollars a month she has left after paying for their rundown apartment. Scott is a gentle nurse consumed by a heroin addiction. Lamar, a man with no legs and a neighborhood full of boys to look after, tries to work his way out of debt. Vanetta participates in a botched stickup after her hours are cut. All are spending almost everything they have on rent, and all have fallen behind. The fates of these families are in the hands of two landlords: Sherrena Tarver, a former school-teacher turned inner-city entrepreneur, and Tobin Charney, who runs one of the worst trailer parks in Milwaukee. They loathe some of their tenants and are fond of others, but as Sherrena puts it, "Love don't pay the bills." She moves to evict Arleen and her boys a few days before Christmas. Even in the most desolate areas of American cities, evictions used to be rare. But today, most poor renting families are spending more than half of their income on housing, and eviction has become ordinary, especially for single mothers,"—from the book jacket.

EVICTED READ-A-LIKES

Brazil's dance with the devil : the World Cup, the Olympics, and the fight for democracy by Dave Zinn (306.4 ZIN) As the 2014 World Cup and the 2016 Olympic Games approach, ordinary Brazilians are holding the country's biggest protest marches in decades. Sports journalist Dave Zinn traveled to Brazil to find out why. In a rollicking read that travels from the favelas of Rio de Janeiro to the fabled Maracanã Stadium, Zinn examines how athletic mega-events turn into neoliberal Trojan horses.

The girls of Atomic City : the untold story of the women who helped win World War II by Denise Kiernan (976.8 KIE) In this book the author traces the story of the unsung World War II workers in Oak Ridge, Tennessee through interviews with dozens of surviving women and other Oak Ridge residents. This is the story of the young women of Oak Ridge, Tennessee, who unwittingly played a crucial role in one of the most significant moments in U.S. history. The Tennessee town of Oak Ridge was created from scratch in 1942. One of the Manhattan Project's secret cities, it did not appear on any maps until 1949, and yet at the height of World War II it was using more electricity than New York City and was home to more than 75,000 people, many of them young women recruited from small towns across the South. Their jobs were shrouded in mystery, but they were buoyed by a sense of shared purpose, close friendships, and a surplus of handsome scientists and Army men.

William Shakespeare

GREAT POETS

The following are some of the greatest poets of the English language.

William Shakespeare wrote his plays in blank verse and also wrote many sonnets. We have several copies of the complete works, as well as copies of individual plays. Shakespeare has also inspired several fiction and nonfiction books that are available in the library.

Robert Frost is one of the 20th century. We have a collection of his poems, essays, and plays. We have a CD collection of Robert Frost reading his own poetry. His work also shows up in many anthologies and children's book collections.

Edgar Allan Poe was both a poet and an author of gothic short fiction. We have several collections of this in the adult and children's section of the library. His life has also produced the inspiration for many fiction and nonfiction books.

Maya Angelou has worn many hats throughout her life.

She has been an actress,, dancer, singer, as well as a poet and essayist . Her biography, I know why the Caged Bird Sings is lauded as one of the most important books to read. We also have her collected poems, her many other books of biographical essays, individual poems, and her works also made it to anthologies.

SINGER SONGWRITERS

The music of the singer songwriter is a very good introduction to poetry. The following are some of the singer songwriters available at the library.

American Teen by Khalid; Hailing from El Paso, Texas, eighteen-year-old singer/songwriter Khalid releases his debut album. It features the first single, Location, along with Let's Go; Hopeless; Coaster; Saved; and the newly released track, Shot Down. Khalid burst onto the music scene with his first single, Location, which received great critical acclaim.

Pageant Material by Kacey Musgraves; Singer-songwriter Kacey Musgraves follows up the Grammy Award winning debut album, Same Trailer Different Park, with her highly anticipated sophomore release. Among the tracks is the new single Biscuits.

Sheezus by Lily Allen; On her third album, singer-songwriter Lily Allen brings plenty of energy, fire and a little bite to each song.

Gypsy Moon by Daniel Champagne ; Daniel Champagne has covered a lot of ground for an artist so young. Hence, his second album 'The Gypsy Moon' (Volume 1) is what the 23-year-old singer, songwriter and guitar virtuoso calls "a collection of road songs" - one which plays out to the listener like a sonic tour diary. The follow-up album to two independent EPs, 'My Own Design', 'Wide Eyed And Open' and full-length album 'Pint of Mystery'.
