

Confidentiality of Library Patron Records Policy

South Sioux City Public Library

(Approved by the City Council of the City of South Sioux City May 8, 2017)

The South Sioux City Public Library keeps confidential all circulation records and other records identifying the names of library users with specific materials and services.

In this regard, the South Sioux City Public Library abides by Neb. Rev. Stat. §84-712.05, and all pertinent United States federal laws and regulations. It also recognizes that laws passed by the United States government supersede all state statutes.
