

Volunteers of the Month

(1) Kevin Roach

Mayor Koch presented the Volunteer of the Month, Kevin Roach, with a plaque on behalf of the City in appreciation for all that Kevin does for the community on December 10, 2018.

Kevin Roach has pastored River Hills Church in South Sioux City for 17 years. He and his wife, Eunice, have been married for 35 years and have three children and one grandchild.

Kevin has been involved in:

- P.A.C.E. Day • Cardinal Days • Dakota County parades • Dakota County Ministerial Alliance • South Sioux City Community Garden • Teammate Program • Lewis and Clark school projects • Regency Square and Matney Nursing homes • Convoy of Hope Team Leader for Siouxland • Highway clean up • Mercy Meals of Siouxland • Two different occasions helped with hurricane relief in Texas • He helped build a school in Kenya • Distributed toys to children in Uganda.

At his local church he serves as the Men's Ministries leader and was the general contractor in building their church in 2004. Kevin also serves the Nebraska District of the Assemblies of God as Men's Director, Light for the Lost Coordinator, and on the District Presbytery board.

(2) Randy Lanning

Mayor Koch presented the Volunteer of the Month, Randy Lanning, with a plaque on behalf of the City in appreciation for all that Randy does for the community on December 10, 2018.

Randy Lanning worked for the Nebraska State Bank for 37 years. He has been quite involved in the community. He has been President of South Sioux City Jaycees, President of South Sioux City Morning Optimist Club (twice), President of South Sioux City Chamber of Commerce, President/Member South Sioux City School Board (16 years) and Chairman/Member of South Sioux City Community Development Committee (20 Years).

He has been married to Nancy for 41 years and has one son, Greg and Laura and children Harrison and Bode, live in Gretna, NE. Daughter Julie and Justin and their son, Carter, live in Springfield, NE.